Second Scoop
Sundae School, with added toppings!

When: June 24–27, 2019
Noon–3:00 pm

Where: Businesses around Ottawa County
Students are responsible for their own transportation to/from their location.

Who: Incoming 1st-5th grade students and previous Sundae School instructors.

Cost: Free!

Students will:
- Enhance design process and problem-solving skills
- Work as a team to investigate, brainstorm, and ultimately create a solution to the challenge
- Gain real-world experience through interactions with local businesses and business experts

Second Scoop is a one-week program that gives students the opportunity to visit local companies and interact with business owners to create a solution to a community-based design challenge. At the end of the week, students will present their solution to a panel for feedback.
